DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 1-4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Kurz et al. (U.S. 6,296,622).

Note in figures 23-28, the method of manufacturing an actuator (130) for acting upon a material in a vessel comprising the steps of processing a shape memory polymer (136,137) that will expand into a umbrella configuration upon being activated which includes heating above its melting temperature during (col. 15, line 46 to col. 17, line 19); and furthermore, wherein the SMP (136,137) operatively connecting to an optical fiber (32,132).

Conclusion

3. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Kurz (U.S. 6,102,932) discloses a shape memory polymer material coupled to an optical fiber.
